Have you ever wondered what happened to the 56 men who signed the Declaration of Independence?

- Five signers were captured by the British as traitors and tortured before they died.
- Twelve had their homes ransacked and burned.
- Two lost their sons serving in the Revolutionary Army, another had two sons captured.
- Nine of the 56 fought and died from wounds or hardships of the Revolutionary War.

They signed and they pledged their lives, their fortunes, and their sacred honor.

What kind of men were they?

Twenty-four were lawyers and jurists, eleven were merchants, nine were farmers and large plantation owners; men of means, well educated. But they signed the Declaration of Independence knowing that the penalty would be death if they were captured.

"Such a Chore"

If your kids are lagging on their household chores, try the two following tips.

1.) Make Chores a Little More Fun:

Turning chores into a game may encourage kids to think differently about them.

Try turning dinner preparations into "dance time," allowing one kid to play DJ.

The others move to the grooves while performing a simple task, such as mixing the salad.

2.) Up the Ante:

If they're bored with their current household duties, try giving them more challenging chores. You may be surprised by how well they rise to the occasion.
